

Do not change the NJ Do Not Call Act. Since signing up I now for the first time in years can answer my phone. It's been nice not to hear the phone ringing off the hook when I am trying to spend time with my family or I am home under the weather. I implore the FCC to leave well enough alone. The Telemarket industry needs to find more creative ways to solicit business other than utilizing the phone to solicit business and annoying home owners.